Union Pacific Depot

Noble Grand Humbug Tom “The Greek” Panagos has called for all redshirts to gather at the Kershaw-Ryan State Park in Lincoln County, Nevada, on the weekend of April 25 - 27, 2025. The Queho Posse will be raising and dedicating an historic marker for the 1923 Union Pacific Depot in Caliente, Nevada. This spectacular structure, built to serve the traveling public, included a 50 room hotel, restaurant, and a telegraph office, as well as the Union Pacific’s business offices when first opened. If you have never seen this fine depot you are in for a treat, and if you have seen this depot and wondered why such a large structure was built for a small community, you will find out. Caliente is Lincoln County’s only incorporated city, and the depot is now it’s city hall. Mark your calendars, bring your PBCs,
(..and MHP just ended right there, with a comma, leaving us all in suspense)

Note that (in a break from tradition) we are not clamping at a Gun Range or Tavern. We have located a suitable alternative in the form of Kershaw Ryan State Park. We have access to the site beginning on Thursday for you early-birds. Also note that there are some nominal charges for the use of the campground. These charges are paid directly to the ranger station. They charge per vehicle /per campsite, but not per person. So carpool and shack up, fellas.

Camping: $15.00 per vehicle, per night (Non-NV Vehicles: $20.00 per vehicle, per night) + $10.00 for sites with utility hook ups. RV pads are limited. More details on this at QuehoPosse.org. Too much text for this little box.

Gettin There

From LV: Take I-15 North towards Canada. Just north of town, turn left onto US93 (feel the Love’s). Watch out for speed traps. Stay on US93 until you get to Caliente. Just as you arrive in town, turn right on 317, follow signs for Kershaw Ryan State Park (~150mi).

From Utah: Extract yourself from the Beaver. Look’s like you are going to take I-15 down to Cedar City, then west on 56 until Panaca. South on 93 around to Caliente. Left on 317 at the south end of town. Signs for Kershaw Ryan. Don’t forget to bring an offering of freedom seeds (or constituent parts) for Big Elvis.

For you Californistani Subjects: You folks in Central Cali are probably going to take US6 all the way across to Warm Springs, then NV-375 south towards Rachel. Wave to the drone that’s been tracking your movements. When you get to the intersection at US-93, hang a left toward Caliente. Just as you arrive in town, turn right on 317, follow signs for Kershaw Ryan State Park.

From Arizona: Emigrate to Las Vegas. Show your scorn for our lack of Constitutional Carry. Then follow directions from the LV section above.

And for fellow radio nerds, you might catch some of us on GMR519 or the usual HAM calling freqs. Shout at us on the way in. If you only have a CB, well, you’re gonna have to chat with Large Marge, because that’s the only folks still running CB, you caveman. ‘73
